ALG Quick Pay Advantage

What is ALG Quick Pay Advantage?

ALG Quick Pay Advantage is a proprietary offering and a great benefit for carriers. Most third party logistics companies will pay their carrier within 30 days of an invoice, which may cause cash flow problems. ALG has a solution to this problem: Pay the Carriers right away! We take relationships between us and our carriers very seriously, aiming to keep them happy. Offering the Quick Pay Advantage program helps us achieve this goal.

How does it work?

ALG Quick Pay Advantage is very simple to take advantage of as a carrier. Once you are signed up, supply an ALG representative with Proof of Delivery (PoD) and you will be paid for a shipment via direct deposit on the next business day. The Quick Pay Advantage fee is only 4% and you will get paid right away instead of waiting up to 30 days.

To qualify for Quick Pay Advantage

A load must be both moved and invoiced through our standard process. Once complete, you can take advantage of the Quick Pay Advantage.
